Pasco County Burn Ban Update

Pasco County Government would like to remind citizens that a burn ban is in place in unincorporated Pasco County.

Go to www.pascocountyfl.net to read the ban in the press release section.

Florida Forest Service (FFS) is requesting residents do not call to request a permit to have open flames events such as campfires, open fires and trash fires. The FFS does not provide permitting for those events.

The burn ban was put in place because the fire danger is extremely high and that is why the burn ban is in effect.

Florida Forest Service has a complete list of eligible permits by going to www.floridaforestservice.com and search for burn permits for more info.
