‘Stuff the Bus’ to Help Feed Pasco County Families

~~Pasco County Public Transportation collections donations for local food banks~~

PASCO COUNTY, FL ---- Pasco County Public Transportation (PCPT) invites the community to ‘Stuff the Bus’ with food on Saturday, November 18, 2017 to help feed less fortunate Pasco County families during the Thanksgiving holiday.

PCPT and The Volunteer Way are partnering to collect donations of frozen turkeys and hams, and non-perishable foods such as boxed stuffing, instant mashed potatoes, canned vegetables, etc.

PCPT buses will be stationed at the following locations on Saturday, November 18, from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m.:

- Walmart Supercenter, 8745 FL-54, New Port Richey (FL-54 and Little Rd)
- Walmart Supercenter, 28500, FL-54, Wesley Chapel (FL-54 and Pointe Pleasant Blvd)

The Volunteer Way is a nonprofit volunteer organization that has been serving Pasco County’s homeless and low-income families for over 20 years.

To learn more about Pasco County Public Transportation, including bus routes, transportation news and schedules visit the PCPT website at: www.ridepcpt.com.
