Trinity Growth and Development Day

~~Pasco County Planning and Development Department to participate in event~~

TRINITY, FL ---- Pasco County's Planning and Development Department plans on participating in the 2016 Trinity Growth and Development Day. The event will be held at Trinity Village Center, 10710 State Road 54 & Duck Slough, Trinity (behind Bonefish Grill), Saturday, March 5, 2016 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

"Trinity and the surrounding community is seeing a recent increase in commercial and residential development over the last eighteen to twenty months," said Matthew Armstrong, Executive Planner with the Pasco County Planning and Development Department who will be speaking at the event. "The building is especially evident in the Trinity Lakes, Trinity Corporate Park, and Starkey Ranch projects, where new residential neighborhoods are being built, including a new Publix shopping center, and a new Holiday Inn Express."

Pasco County Commissioners Mike Wells, Jack Mariano and Chairman Kathryn Starkey are expected to attend the event.
