Pasco County Libraries Wants Your Input for Branch Renovations

~~Community Listening Sessions will address library remodeling and design~~

PASCO COUNTY, FL ---- Pasco County Libraries is reimagining its seven branches, and is asking for your help in shaping the future. Libraries will host a series of Community Listening Sessions as the design phase of library remodeling work gets underway. You're encouraged to attend and provide input on the planned use and function of various spaces within the renovated library branches.

The three-year remodeling project is funded by the General Obligation Bond voters passed in November, 2018. Initially, the listening sessions will be held for the New River branch in Wesley Chapel and the Centennial Park branch in Holiday.
