Keep Pasco Beautiful Named Florida’s ‘Affiliate of the Year’

~~Keep Florida Beautiful recognizes local affiliate accomplishments~~

PASCO COUNTY, FL ---- Pasco County is known statewide – and beyond – for its seagrass and salt marsh coastline, acres of conservation land and rich natural resources. Keeping the environment in tip-top shape is the goal of Keep Pasco Beautiful, and the group is being recognized for those efforts.

Pasco County is thrilled to announce that the Keep Florida Beautiful network has named Keep Pasco Beautiful ‘Affiliate of the Year’! There are more than 40 affiliates in the Florida network, so coming out on top is an amazing accomplishment.

“We are extremely honored to receive this award,” said Keep Pasco Beautiful Coordinator Kristen King. “This recognition shows that even in challenging times our community bands together to protect our environment and create a positive impact.”

Keep Pasco Beautiful was recognized for the following:

- Pasco Earth Day Celebration
- Great American Cleanup
- Ongoing Social Media Engagement
